Major Willis, of Salvation Army, Working With Local Representatives in Petersburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., Jan. 17.—Every Petersburg lawyer who was in town or could be communicated with endorsed a petition telegraphed to President Roosevelt this afternoon requesting Asa Rogers, collector of internal revenue for the Eastern District of Virginia.

The communication commended Captain Rogers as a courteous and efficient government officer, and went on to say that the people of this community, regardless of party affiliation, as far as could be learned, earnestly commended him to the President's favorable consideration. It was signed: J. M. Miller, Judge Corporation Court; William E. McIlwaine, senator, Twenty-ninth District; John Watson, member House of Delegates; Alex. Hamilton, member late Constitutional Convention; R. B. Davis, ex-member House of Delegates; F. R. Lassiter, ex-member Congress from Fourth District; Robert Gilliam, clerk of the court; Thomas G. Watkins, George S. Bernard, A. D. Hamilton, Robert Gilliam, Jr., J. M. Townsend, Charles Hall Davis, J. M. Quicke, Jr., R. H. Mann, William Henry Mann, Charles E. Plummer, Bernard Mann, R. B. Wilcox, Jr.

Another petition in behalf of Captain Rogers is being circulated among business men, and has received a very large number of signatures.

The opinion seems to be growing here that Captain Rogers will remain in office, but the people are anxious to let the President know their wishes in the matter.

REAL ESTATE SALE.

The brick building and lot at the corner of Brown and Guarantee Streets, formerly occupied by the Petersburg Hosiery Company, has been sold to George H. Herring, of North Carolina, for $4,650. The property has been recently sold for $4,650, but an upset bid was made. The sale was conducted by T. Pannill's Sons for Carl H. Davis and Bartlett Roper, Jr., trustees. Mr. Seaton, of Richmond, bought the machinery in the building several days ago for $1,500.

OLD CHANDLER MILL.

Changes Hands and Will be Converted Into Modern Roller Mill.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., Jan. 17.—The old Chandler's Mill property, which is well known in Dinwiddie county as one of the best corn mills and grist mills in that county, has recently been bought by Coleman Brothers, of that county. It is said that Coleman Brothers will commence work in the early spring in putting in a first-class roller process flour mill. This will be a great benefit to that section, as the wheat growers are now hauling their wheat thirty miles to the grist.

This property has for some time been owned by M. R. Seal, of Petersburg, Va., and has been greatly improved by him. The pond that furnishes the power for the mill covers 175 acres of land and is one of the finest fishing ponds in the county. There are also a great many ducks, geese and other pond fowl. The dam is solid rock, with a rock foundation, and has been run for about one hundred years. The pond furnishes enough power to run more than one mill. It is hoped that the flour mill will be in operation for the coming wheat crop.

THE ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE MEETING

The Fourth Annual Convention Held in Lynchburg.

CHANGES IN STATE LAWS

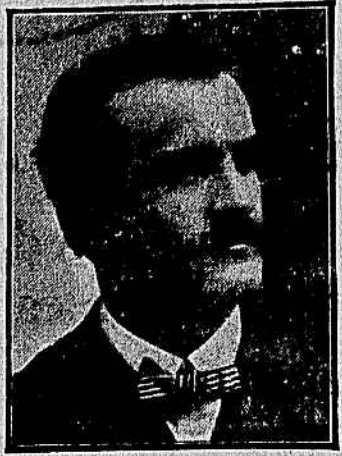

Outline Suggested by Rev. J. W. West Referred to Special Committee for Detailed Report.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., Jan. 17.—The fourth annual convention of the Anti-Saloon League, of Virginia, convened to-night at Centenary Methodist Church and will be in session until Thursday night. The address of welcome was delivered by Rev. D. G. C. Butts, the convention church pastor, and it was responded to by Dr. John Hannon, of Danville. The annual address of the president, Rev. James Gannon, was followed by a strong address by Rev. G. W. Young, superintendent of the Kentucky League.

The school of methods, in which prominent temperance workers of the State participated, consumed the morning and afternoon, though not really a portion of the convention.

CHANGES FOR STATE LAWS.

The feature of the school was a paper by Rev. J. W. West, field secretary,

CITY SERGT. R. E. McNEAL.

RADFORD, VA., Jan. 17.—City Sergeant Robert E. McNeal, who has shown the wife-murderer, James M. Linkous, much kindness since his arrest; Sergeant McNeal is as brave as a lion, but like all big-hearted people, as tender-hearted as a child. At the solemn service at the jail Saturday night, when Linkous, as a witness, swore that he was innocent, Sergeant McNeal broken down and wept at the infamy of the oath.

It is thought by many that the service at the jail was planned by Linkous to arouse public sentiment. Others think the crowd was too large, some being present who were not asked by the prisoner and that his courage failed him.

which was in the form of a report of a ways and means committee. The changes in the State laws suggested by the speaker, are brief, as follows:

First. Impose a jail sentence in addition to fine for violation of local option laws. In addition a $500 bond to be required and increased $500 with each conviction.

Second. A search warrant law to be enacted to find liquor secreted in local option territory, which shall be prima facie evidence of violation of law.

Third. Sales to be prohibited by distillers in local option territory.

Fourth. An anti-jug and package law to be enacted similar to that in other States.

Fifth. Common carriers to be prohibited from delivering liquors to fictitious addresses in local option territory.

Sixth. A law impeaching officers who fail to enforce by petition a majority of qualified voters in their jurisdiction.

Seventh. For prohibiting selling to habitual drunkards and for the extermination of free lunch privileges where license is granted.

Eighth. All saloons closed from 11 P. M. to 6 A. M.

Ninth. A plain local option ballot to be provided.

Tenth. Impartial judges of election to be appointed, three by each contesting interest.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

The paper was referred to a special committee for detailed report at a later session.

The attendance is good, there being already more than a hundred delegates registered from all sections of the State, and all trains are bringing additional visitors.

A Personal Encounter.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ASHLEY, N. C., Jan. 17.—The post-office was the scene yesterday evening of a personal encounter between Dr. R. B. Morris, a practicing physician, and F. A. Todd, local manager for Armour and Company. Dr. Morris advanced toward Mr. Todd and requested that he retract a statement he had made which the doctor claimed was derogatory to him. Some hot words followed, and Dr. Morris struck at Mr. Todd several times with a cane which he held in his hand. Mr. Todd drew a revolver and threatened to kill Dr. Morris, who responded by likewise drawing his weapon. A scuffle ensued, when at this critical moment J. C. Morrison, a well known citizen, stepped between the men, and with the assistance of employees of the post-office and bystanders the enraged men were separated. Dr. Morris being taken behind bars, and Mr. Todd being taken to the jail. Mr. Todd was subsequently served with warrants to appear in court on a charge of a breach of the peace.

The Old Cracker Barrel—

ever think how many different kinds of soda crackers the grocer gets out of that barrel?

There's the top layer sort and the bottom layer sort—there's the damp day kind and the dusty day kind—there's the mackerel flavor and the kerosene flavor—and when you order bulk soda crackers you can never tell which kind you are going to get. That's the old way.

The new way is to get

You can get only one kind of Uneeda Biscuit—the kind that are always fresh, crisp, and clean—the kind that are the same to-day, to-morrow—every day. They are the best soda crackers made.

LETTER TO T. K. PARRISH.

Richmond, Va.

Dear Sir: Mr. President of a cotton-mill at Union, S. C.—he don't want to see his name in print—had two offers of 500 gallons of paint: $1.50 and $1.25. Took the $1.25; and got skinned. He'd have got three-quarters skinned if he'd taken the other.

The $1.50 was full-gallon; the $1.25 was 38 per cent. short. The full-measure paint was adulterated 40 per cent; the short-measure paint was adulterated 45 per cent, besides benzine in the oil, don't know how much.

Devotee lead-and-zinc wasn't sold in the town then.

It don't pay to monkey with paint.

Devotee costs less than any of 'em; not by the gallon, of course; by the house and year. That's how to reckon it. Co by the name.

Yours truly,
